Israel Suggests Apology Is Enough For Eichmann

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, July 5 (AP) — Israel has asked Argentina to consider an apology by Foreign Minister Golda Meir, adequate reparation for the clandestine removal of Adolf Eichmann.

An official note from the Jerusalem government again made clear that the wartime Nazi leader would not be returned to Buenos Aires. Jewish groups opposed him there in May 1958, but had him sent to Israel for trial on charges that he played a leading role in the extermination of 6 million European Jews.

A United Nations Security Council resolution June 24 said the seizure of Eichmann violated Argentine sovereignty and recommended that Israel make adequate reparations. The council did not call for the return of Eichmann as Argentina at first demanded. The Israeli note cited United States and British statements to the Security Council urging that Argentina accept the apology. Mr. Abo, made during the council debate and consider the matter closed. The note also stressed that Eichmann will be held in Israel for trial.

Argentine officials had no immediate comment on the note from Jerusalem.
